Milan, Oct. 13. The Maquis de Prie, before he proceeds to Rome, is to confer with the Duke of Modena and General Konigſeck, to inform himſelf rightly of what has paſs'd in the Ferrareze. Succours are put into Comacchio, and ſuch good Meaſures are taken for the Defence of that Place, that the Garriſon do not fear being attack'd. 'Tis reported, that near Mirabel in the Bologneze 200 Imperialiſts have beaten 700 Men of the Pope's Troops. General Thaun is expected at Modena, to command the Imperial Troops. 500 Croations are arriv'd at Manfredonia.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Octob. 30.

From the Camp before Lisle, Octob. 24. This Morning 30 Squadrons of the Troops which guarded the Lines of Circumvallation, commanded by Lieutenant General Vehlen; and 10 Battallions which came from the grand Army, led by Lieutenant General Wackerbaert; march'd from hence. The Hereditary Prince of Hesse Cassel is to command these Troops, and endeavour to dislodge the Enemy who are intrenching themselves at La Bassee and Lens; or it may be to penetrate into the Enemy's Country.

From the Camp before Lisle, Oct. 25. The Ravelin at the Gate of Magdalen, which should have been quitted by the French the 23d at Noon, was not quitted till the Midnight following. This Morning 1700 French Horse with their Equigage, march'd out at the Gate of Magdalen, and were conducted towards Doway. The Enemy's Foot are march'd into the Citadel, and among them the Chevalier de Luxembourg, tho' according to the Capitulation he might have march'd out. The French Officers would have us believe that about 6000 Men are march'd into the Citadel, and that 'tis well provided for Defence. The Prince of Holstein Beck is march'd into the City as Governour with 15 Battallions, among them those of Sabin and Primrose. Most of the Houses neareſt the Attacks are ruin'd. The Intrenchment behind the Breach, which might be mounted by a whole Battallion at once, is not strong; and so small, that hardly one Battallion could be plac'd behind it to defend it. The 27th Hostilities will be renew'd, and the Citadel will be attack'd from the City and from the Country. 'Tis said M. de Rocque is to have the chief Direction of the Ingeniers. We shall not stir from hence, till our Works are levell'd.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated Oct. 30.

Aeth, Oct. 26. Prince Eugene has summon'd 10000 Pioneers to Lisle, to work with the Soldiers in levelling the Trenches, and repairing the Breaches. The French Army are continually in Motion along the Schelde, now marching towards Ghent, now towards Tournay. Assoon as the Duke of Burgundy had an Account that Lisle had capitulated, he detach'd 15 Battallions and as many Squadrons through Tournay towards Doway, la Bassee, and Bethune, to put those Places, which were almost without Garrisons, into such a Condition that they may not be surpris'd by the Troops of the Allies from the Camp before Lisle.
